Murray Players Show Class in First Game of the Season

Blankenship's Army Makes Favorable Impression on Salt Lake Fans; Retail Clerks Give Promise of Much Ability.

Murray 20
Retail Clerks 7

THE Murray ball players show class. Their first workout in the way of a game yesterday demonstrated that Blankenship has collected a rattling good bunch of fielders and hitters, especially hitters. The result of the game was a score of 20 to 7 in favor of Murray.

Three of "Blank's" pitchers took a whirl at it yesterday, but none of them extended himself. Shadler started but he was manifestly "cold," and did not let himself out. Manook, who followed, made a good impression on the fans, and Smith, who pitched the last three innings, let it be known that he has the style and the strength and the speed.

Aside from Caveney at short and Thornton at first, all of the players used by Blankenship in yesterday's game are known to Salt Lake fans. Thornton and Caveney gave a good account of themselves. Freddie Cordtz, who was with Salt Lake in 1911, played a star game in the field, making four beautiful catches.

For a first-day trial, the laqueurs gave the crowd its money's worth and clearly proved that Blankenship will have a fast team in the pennant race.

Clerks Learn to Hit.

The Retail Clerks put up as good a game as could be expected for the first time out. In their very first appearance of the year they showed hitting ability, which indicates that Captain Bert Margetts is teaching the boys along the right lines. Harry Kilpatrick worked well at short and got three hits in four times at bat. Rehbolts, the Clerks' new catcher, put up a classy game behind the bat, and should give the Clerks a backstop of much ability for their coming season.

Of course, it was not to be expected that the game would be anything other than a workout. It served that purpose and permitted the boys to get their first lesson in team work. It was Blankenship's first opportunity to work his men in their positions and consequently the going was somewhat strange to them. The game can be said of the Retail Clerks.

About half the runs that were made were the result of the absence of team work. At least two of the Clerks' rallies were made because the Murray infield thought there were three out instead of two. Such oversights are not likely to occur again. Then, too, it was difficult to pick up the ball sometimes. In the springtime a ball player's feet seem to grow to an enormous size and some way or other they always get in the way of his hands.

Two Long Dives.

The feature of yesterday's game was the long hitting of the Murrayites. Otto ("Dutch") Auer won the distinction of being the first man in the good year 1914 to hit the ball over the fence for a home run. Incidentally, he brought in two men ahead of him. Changnon at once thought he would try his hand at a little hard hitting, too, and as a result of that determination he went Auer one better. Changnon not only drove the ball farther over the fence than Auer had done, but also added one to the herd he drove before him. Changnon sent his hit out of the lot when three men were on. Had either of those hits been made in a regular game there surely would have been some excitement. Carman hit it for three sacks and there were numerous doubles.

Crowd Well Pleased.

Altogether, the first appearance of the Murray boys went far to stamp them real ball players. The crowd, too, formed a favorable opinion of the Clerks. The entertainment furnished fun for a crowd of fairly large size, which at times warmed up and gave out of even the high school campus. On the whole, it was an afternoon well spent all around.

The new grandstand, the structure which replaces the one burned last fall, is a handsome and comfortable affair.

JUNIORS WILL MEET SENIORS FOR TITLE

The junior class team of the Salt Lake high school will battle with the senior class team this afternoon for the championship of the high school. The game will be played on the high school campus and will start at 2:30 o'clock. All senior and junior class players are requested to meet at the high school at 1:30 p.m. on Friday, but on account of inclement weather the game was postponed.

The fifth game of the class series at the L. D. S. U. will be played this afternoon, when the freshmen nine will meet the sophomore class team. The teams are now tied for first place in the class series, and from present indications the series promises to be hard fought. Both teams are in good shape. The game will be played on the Eleventh ward square, at the corner of First avenue and A street.

FREDDY CORDTZ, old-time Salt Lake lad, who is again with Blankenship's team.

pen in an ordinary mid-season game, even in a double play, Allen excelled for the benefit of the grandstand and bleachers. There was no fan present who did not admit that Manager Gimlin has assembled for the 1914 team the greatest array of baseball talent ever seen in Ogden. It is no longer a question of how to obtain the required talent for a certain position, but how he is going to have the heart to let some of it go. There is enough material on hand at the present time to pick a better team than Ogden has boasted in the past two years, yet there is a big bunch of talent yet to come.

Good Ones Still to Come.

The absentees are Rieber, for whom several big league offers have been received. "Kitty" Knight, last season's manager and pitcher, Paul Cobb, brother of Tyrus; Howard Murphy, one of the best outfielders in the league; Bart Woolms, the first sacker of last year's team; and another outfielder whose name is being withheld for the present.

Although he arrived only yesterday, Coach Seabough, obtained from the Southern league, was out in uniform today and worked for a few innings behind the plate. Seabough should not only prove one of the topnotch catchers of the league, but also his old head will be the means of assisting Manager Gimlin in developing one or two of the young pitchers on the staff. If the showing made in today's exhibition can be regarded as a criterion, some of the old heads of the club will be kept in the fold.

Of the pitching department there are Ballinger, Rustenhaven, Healy and Knight who are almost certain of their places, yet Heilick, Lemley, Hall and Galsano are demanding consideration. Sandow, a Wyoming deputy sheriff, is paying all of his own expenses to get a tryout with the local club, is also a pitcher, but was not worked in today's game. He is a veritable mountain of flesh, but in spite of that has considerable speed on the bases and might under proper training develop a hitting eye. Harry Greenwell, Allen and Scott, all local boys, were given an equal chance with the members of the regular squad today.

Raedel Second Backstop.

With Seabough certain of the big end of the job behind the plate, Raedel is already regarded as second string catcher. Mauck, a young athlete who got his base-batting at Purdue university, was assigned a uniform by Manager Gimlin yesterday and worked well for nine innings today.

With the exception of second base, Manager Gimlin is not troubling himself a great deal about the infield. Harry Greenwell, Allen and Scott, all local boys, were given an equal chance with the members of the regular squad today.

OGDEN FANS LOOK THEIR TEAM OVER

Ogden Regulars 21
Ogden Yarnigans 6

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, March 29.—Ogden gave baseball an enthusiastic welcome today when the fans assembled at Glenwood park to witness the first exhibition game of 1914. More than twenty athletes appeared in uniform and Manager "Doc" Gimlin found enough players on hand to form two clubs with extra men to replace pitchers after they had worked two or three innings. From a purely baseball standpoint it was not much of a game, the Regulars defeating the Yarnigans, 21 to 6.

The principal object was to furnish the fans a first opportunity to see all of the players in action, and this object was accomplished. There were eleven pitchers in the squad and all worked on the mound except one. Everything that could hap-

REILLEY IS CHAMP IN CLASS A SHOOT

Wins Series After Seven Weeks' Battle; Another Cup Contender.

The class A amateur championship of the Salt Lake Gun club was won yesterday by C. H. Reilley, Jr., shooting from scratch, in a hard-fought contest that lasted for seven weeks and in which the best shots of the club kept the final outcome of the tournament continually in doubt. Reilley took the lead at the last previous, shoot and the several other close contenders for the honor and the beautiful gold foil emblematical of the championship that went with it were unable to overtake him. His work has been of a consistently high character and he was warmly congratulated at the conclusion of the shoot by all of the members of the club.

F. D. Shepherd furnished the surprise of the day by out-shooting all of the previous winners in the Pommeroy cup race and appropriating to himself the honors. The consistent improvement he has been showing for the last several weeks has been entirely overlooked in the excitement which has developed as the race has progressed, and while everyone was keeping track of the scores of the previous winners, among whom are five members who need only one more win to receive the final award of the beautiful trophy, Shepherd stepped out quietly and added his name to the list of winners. Interest in the final outcome has become intense and the man who wins it for the third time will be hailed as a hero.

Wind Interferes.

The scores for the day show the effect of a gusty wind which played havoc with the flight of the targets as well as the hopes of high scores. The clay birds behaved most strangely and even the most experienced shots were unable to find them in the wind, or, having found them, learned with regret that they did not remain where they should have been long enough to be shot. Earl Morgan was the most successful at locating them and made the high score for the day.

Secretary Bain announces that the shoot for the beautiful silver trophy given to the club by the Du Pont Powder company will be given next Sunday and the handicaps to govern will be given out before that time. The race will consist of four shoots, in which every club member will be handicapped in exact accordance with the scores he has made in the Pommeroy cup race, and the award will be made to the contestant who, with his handicap, makes the best total score for the four shoots.

O'BRIEN AND MIDKIFF IN BATTLE TONIGHT

Headliner for Manhattan Show Promising; Fun Certain in "Battle Royal."

Everything is in readiness for the big boxing card of the Manhattan Athletic club in the Garrick theater tonight, and unless all signs fail the fans are going to be treated to a fine night's sport.

The card consists of five all-star four-round bouts and a big "battle royal" top of the fun. As the boys who will participate in the short bouts are the cream of the local talent, some rattling good bouts are sure to result, and the "battle royal" will no doubt prove to be the greatest fun maker of this kind ever staged in this city. Manager Downing has arranged to have three negroes from Ogden do battle with the two best "bat- tle royals" in this city, and "Young" Peter Jackson, who is handling the end of the show, says that the Ogdenites are going up against the real thing.

O'Brien has been working out at the Harman club with "Young" Gilbert and "Young" Maloney of that club, who meet Harry Shaffer and Glen Gutke of the Manhattan club. The boys have divided into two camps and they look upon tonight's bouts more as a team match than as individual contests. Shaffer and Gutke have been working with Midkiff and are out to bring home their bouts as soon as they can.

"Kid" Sandy, who will meet one of the Harman club boys, has also been working with the Midkiff aggregation and will be in his usual good shape and will no doubt put up a whirlwind bout.

"Mush" McCabe and "Kid" Cuddy of Sugarhouse, who will furnish the curtain raiser, have also been doing some good training and are more than eager to put up a pleasing bout, so that they will be given another chance in the near future.

The local followers of the short round game have shown so much interest in their bouts that Manager Downing has made arrangements to have all of the elevated seats put in place on the stage in order to handle the crowd that will undoubtedly attend. The fans have shown by their patronage that they appreciate the high class bouts, and Manager Downing is doing his utmost to give them the best in the city, and in tonight's card it looks as though he has lined up the clas-

WEBER ACADEMY BUSY IN ATHLETICS

Coach Watson Has Champion Teams in Ball and Track

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, March 29.—Hardy Weber Stake academy will work in both track and ball. Coach Watson of the local team in both track and ball is showing up well. More than thirty boys are on the athletics and Watson is a good man among the new players. The Ogden high school academy did not enter the state baseball league because no field upon which to play their games. It was also the expenses of teams from Ogden could not be met and so no team was formed. The academy is composed of the work of four coaches and the school for the Deaf and the industrial school. The academy completed this week.

Among the promising players are Crichton and Taylor at the first base, showing up well. Watson expects much. At the position are Horner and Barlow, Nixon, Miller, and Fine are showing well in the outfield. In the weights there are Jensen, Brown, Meehan and the long runs are Fox, Cris and Jensen.

UTAH WANTS GARRICK WITH NEARBY

Manager Dargatz of the Utah baseball team has been by the coaches to arrange for the variety players. The work of four coaches and a lot of good weather for the past weeks has whipped a good out of the mass of material reported for the first working expected that toward the end there will be one or two players able to get the use of the city and the college games. He will continue to improve the city field until it is in position to handle the city semi-professional teams and is ready to accept games of them. He would like to date with the D. & R. G. show or any of the other big shows.

WANTED—NICKNAMES

A new nickname is wanted for the Salt Lake baseball club; is wanted for the Murray club. "Skyracers" is unwieldy and, it never got Salt Lake anything better than second place.

The Tribune offers season tickets for the "at home" games of Lake and Murray teams for the best nickname to supplant "Skyracers," and for a name for Murray. "Mormons" and "Saints" are for obvious reasons. The plan has the indorsement of George O. president of the Salt Lake club, and Dr. C. P. Harville, president Murray club.

If more than one person submits the name finally approved president of the club, the winner will be determined by lot.
